The body and top of the machine were de-

DR. RICHMOND NOW BAPTIST.

Episcopal Clergyman, With Lively Career, Announces it.

New York, Feb. 6.—The Rev. Dr. George Chalmers Richmond, whose career as Episcopal clergyman has been remarkably turbulent for more than a decade, announces in a letter written from the New York Athletic Club that he has left the Episcopal faith to become a Baptist.

"My reasons for renouncing the Episcopal ministry are not the usual," Dr. Richmond explains, "but rather have to do with the new movement in modern democracy."

His departure from the Anglican Church may be regarded as the culmination of incessant controversies with his ecclesiastical superior and associates, a notable episode of which was his trial in Philadelphia before a court of ministers on charges of conduct unbecoming a clergyman and defiance of his bishop. The verdict of this court was that Dr. Richmond, then rector of St. John's Episcopal Church in Philadelphia, should be suspended from the ministry for two years.

GRAND THEATRE

Patrons of the Grand Theatre will have an opportunity to see Harry Mestayer in a photoplay written by himself when "Wife or Country" is presented tomorrow.

Mr. Mestayer is well known for his work on the legitimate stage, having appeared with Holbrook Blynn in New York; also Ruth Chatterton, Arnold Daly and Nazimova, as well as having been starred in three big motion picture successes," "Stop Thief!" and "The Millionaire Baby."

"Wife or Country" is a drama which will appeal to a host of picture enthusiasts, for its theme is that of a man who makes good after encounterinf untoward difficulties. Patriotism and love are the forces which enable him to conquer human weakness. But he must fight to maintain his goal after he has reached it, and it is here that the plot takes an unusual twist involving a mystery element and German propaganda that lends a timeliness and universal appeal to this screen drama.

PRICE OF EGGS GOES UP

New York, Feb. 6.—Butter and eggs, retail dealers say, were halted today in their downward trend because the public is buying too much.

The quantity, they complained, is going down too fast for the prices.

Therefore the price went up a little.

CASE OF DR. HADLEY

Husband of Dead Woman Says She Jumped Into the River While in a Delirium.

After having first exclaimed that he was innocent but could not prove it, Dr. Wilmer Ames Hadley, wanted in Richmond in connection with the death of his wife, whose body was pulled from the James river several weeks ago, jumped into an automobile at the home of his father in Friendswood, Paris county, Texas, and disappeared. The incident occurred January 24. The doctor is said to have stated that there "is only one man who can prove my innocence and I do not know where to find him."

Hadley also is alleged to have stated that his wife was not murdered but in a delirium jumped from the boat and was drowned. The doctor was practicing medicine in Friendswood when he found out that he was wanted for the murder of his wife

Texas authorities are keeping a sharp lookout for the fugitive and were right behind him when he escaped. Since jumping into the machine Hadley has not been seen by either his father or the authorities, it is said, but word has been sent through Texas for authorities to be on the lookout for the alleged murderer.

Henrico authorities have increased the reward offered for the arrest of the fugitive. The board of supervisors have offered a reward of $200, and it is thought that this will be supplemented by the state. The Evans family of Cincinnati are said to be willing to offer an additional $200 and it is believed that the total amount offered for the capture of Dr. Hadley will be $600.

Just received a fresh supply of salt water oysters. Price 40 and 50cts per quart. J. R. Bryant, 128 South Royal street. 32-3t.

MASONIC ASSOCIATION

Ninth Annual Meeting Will be Held in This City February 21-22—Plans For Concerted Drive for Funds Will be Submitted.

The ninth annual meeting of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association will be held in the Masonic Temple in this city February 21 and 22 and the sessions will be presided over by Col. Louis A. Watres, former lieutenant governor of Pennsylvania.

It is expected that about seventy delegates, all of whom will be officers of the various grand bodies, will attend.

But little efforts have been made during the past year to collect funds for the proposed memorial temple to the memory of Washington, which is the object of the association, the entire time having been devoted to perfecting plans for making a concerted drive for 1919 and 1920. The plans formulated will be submitted to this meeting.

During the past year the Grand Lodge of Kentucky has increased its subscription to the fund from $3,000 to $5,000.

The Grand Lodge of Tennessee, which never before participated in the meetings, has appropriated the sum of $2,500 to the fund.

A program for both days of the convention is now being prepared by Charles H. Callahan, this city, secretary of the association. Various committees have been named to assist in entertaining the delegates while here.

YOUNG WOMAN A FIREBUG

Confesses Setting Fire to Probation Offier's Home

Pottsville, Pa., Feb. 6.—Lucy Repsch, a young woman, was sent to jail Tuesday by Alderman A. L. Eckert, on a charge of setting fire to the house of Charles Barker, in the most prominent residential section of the city. Dr. Mary Kingsbury, probation officer of this county, who occupies the premises made the charge. Miss Repsch confessed the deed to the Alderman. Considerable damage was done by the fire and the State Fire Marshal is taking a hand in the prosecution

He kidnaps her and takes her to a boathouse. Brandy, tries to rescue her but Charlotte loves Jimmy and refuses to be rescued. Tamed Charlotte and her tamer prepare to lead a less strenuous life.

Also a Christy Comedy.

Ingomar—"The Midnight Express"

The grandeur of the West, in its mountains, streams and valleys, is beautifully shown in "The Midnight Stage," the Extra Selected Star Photoplay starring Frank Keenan. Mr. Keenan, interpreting the dual role of the upright man and evil man, displays a power of delineation, which makes the characters live, and a gripping intensity, which holds interest from the beginning to the end.

Mr. Keenan has achieved the distinction of being the foremost character actor of America and even his exquisite work in "The Bells"—also one of Irving's favorites—cannot surpass his achievement in this tense, blood stirring western romance, which will be shown att he Ingomar Theatre tonight.

Bring your broadest smile with you to the Grand Theatre tonight when you see the famous Charlie Chaplin and "Fatty" Arbuckle. A great comedy

Mrs. J. Hayes, wishes to announce to her patrons, that there will be no formal opening of Spring Millinery. We now have a display of early Spring and Summer hats, 906 King street. 31-3t.

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS

All Clews in Case of Attack on Miss Julia M. Garrett made Last Sunday Prove Fruitless—Fairfax Authorities Still at Work.

All clews that have been furnished the Fairfax county authorities in connection with the attack made last Sunday on Miss Julia May Garrett thus far have proved barren of results.

Four days have passed since the attack was made by a soldier and a civilian, which occurred late Sunday afternoon near Seminary Station, Fairfax County, and no tangible clew has been obtained and the authorities of that county practically admit that they are without any new clews which are worthy of consideration.

Miss Garrett last night went to the Walter Reed Hospital Washington and looked at a soldier who it was thought resembled the soldier who attacked her. He, however, proved to be the wrong man as did also the suspects brought up from Spottsylvania yesterday as already told in The Gazette.

The authorities of Fairfax county, however, have not given up hope of catching the men and they have simply redoubled their efforts along this line and every clew furnished is being run to earth.

The authorities of Fairfax county have the co-operation of the officials at Camp Humphreys in their search for the soldier.

CLAIMS ILLEGAL DETENTION

Baltimore, Feb. 6.—Resenting the alleged forcible manner in which he was brought to Baltimore and confined in the Biedler and Sellman Sanatorium, on North Charles St., two suits for $2,500 damages each were instituted in the Court of Common Pleas yesterday by George B. Pennington, of Phoebus, Va., through Charles A. Kelso and Henry L. Wortche, attorneys. One suit is against the Baltimore Steam Packet Company, owner of the steamer Florida, on which Pennington alleges he was was brought to this city, and the other against Dr. H. H. Biedler and Dr. W. A. Sellman, proprietors of the sanatorium.

It is alleged in the declaration that Pennington was unlawfully detained and deprived of his liberty on the steamer from Friday, January 3, to Saturday, January 4, and in the sanatorium from Saturday, January 4, to Wednesday, January 8. Pennington was brought here, it is said, to be treated for alcoholism.

TAILOR MAKES SPECIAL BOOTLEGGING POCKETS

MONARCHIST TROOPS BEATEN.

Republican Forces Occupy Covilha And Castello Branco.

Lisbon, Feb. 6.—Monarchist troops, it is announced, have been defeated in an action at Covilha, southeast of Oporto, near the Spanish frontier, by Republican troops under Lieutenant Fuertes, who are advancing on Guarda to the northeast. The Republican flag now floats over the towns of Covilha and Castello Branco, and the Monarchists are retiring on Regoa, where their headquarters have been established.

Along the coast the Republicans have occupied Fosoca and Argaja and the Monarchists are evacuating Estarreja, south of Oporto. Communication with Lisbon has been restored as far north as Aveiro.

Military courts have been established to consider the question of dismissing civil and military officials hostile to the Republican regime. The Government, it is added, has no confidence in the wardens of the prisons and penitentiaries and will dismiss them.

The Government announces that the Monarchist elements in the country will be held responsible for all damages in the zone where fighting is now going on, as well as for money expended in putting down the Monarchist movement.

MASS MEETING SUNDAY

Drive for Funds for Syrian and Armenian Relief—Address Will be Delivered in Richmond Theater by Miss McCormick.

A state representative of the Syrian and Armenian Relief Fund, of which the National Committee has pledged $30,000,000, was recently in Alexandria, has appointed R. L. Payne chairman to organize committees to raise Alexandria's necessary proportion of this fund. Mr. Payne expects to appoint a committee in the next few days, to vigorously push the campaign for this worthy cause.

In the meantime plans are being matured for a public meeting to be held in the Richmond Theatre, Sunday afternoon, February 8th, at 3 o'clock, at which Miss McCormick representative of the general committee of the United States, will make an address. She has been speaking in a number of cities in the East in behalf of this worthy cause. The public is invited to this meeting, and it is hoped that a large crowd will be present to hear Miss McCormick.

BILL TO OUST WILLIAMS

Senator Weeks Would Abolish Office of Comptroller of Currency

Washington, Feb. .6—A bill to abolish the office of the comptroller of the currency and to combine the duties and powers of that office with those of the Federal Reserve Board was introduced in Congress yesterday by Senator Weeks, Republican, of Massachusetts.

The renomination of John Skelton Williams as comptroller is now before the Senate Committee on Banking and Currency, to which body the Weeks resolution was referred. A public hearing on charges brought against Dr. Williams by leading bankers will open before the committee today. Mr. Williams' term expired on Monday, but he is continuing to serve as a "holdover" appointee until the Senate has acted on his renomination.

REJECTS PROHIBITION

Connecticut Senate Refuses to Ratify Federal Dry Amendment

Hartford, Conn., Feb. 6.—By a vote of 20 to 14, the Connecticut Senate yesterday afternoon refused to ratify the Federal Prohibition amendment.

All who voted in favor of ratification are Republicans.

The resolution now will go to the House, where it is predicted there will be non-concurrence in the Senate's action. It is believed the House will favor ratification by at least 50 majority. In event of such action by the House it is probable that a committee on conference will be necessary.

The action by the Connecticut Senate is the first vote against ratification thus far taken by any branch of a Legislature in the United States.

TAKEN BY AMERICANS

Archangel, Feb. 6.—Heavy losses were inflicted on the Bolshevists by the American forces Tuesday, and the enemy was driven back in disorder from the village of Vistavka, on the Vaga. The American casualties were five killed and several wounded.

Many Bolshevist soldiers were taken prisoner by the Americans.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our beloved son, Clyde M. Henderson, who entered into peaceful rest January 16, 1919, three weeks ago today. Gone but not forgotten.

Three weeks have passed our hearts still sore,
As time goes on we miss him more.
His loving smile and tender face,
No one can fill his vacant place.

The loss was bitter, the pain severe
To part with one we loved so dear,
The trial was hard we will not complain
But trust in God to meet again.

By his devoted Mother and Father,
Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Henderson.

"GAS" AIDED IN VICTORY

Deliveries of U. S. Ptroleum Forced Armistice, Says Food Board.

Washington, Feb. 6—Sixty days before the armistice was signed and when the situation on the western front had reached a critical stage, Marshal Foch cabled the Fuel Administration: "If you don't keep up your petroleum situation we shall lose the war."

This and other messages from Allied leaders were made public last night by the Fuel Administration to show "how deliveries of American gasoline in quantities on the western front alone prevented alterations in the plan for campaign which forced the Central Powers to an armistice."

Another message received October 1 said in part:

"Senator Berenger writes, 'Highest command informs him that position has become so serious that change in military operations will have to be contemplated unless increased deliveries of gasoline at front are made possible."

Observance by the American people of the "gasolineless Sunday" request, Fuel Administration officials said today, enabled Senator Berenger later to declare, "Petroleum will have played as great a part in the victory as blood itself and will have proved the life-blood of victory.

The Fuel Administration said that the Earl of Curzon on November 21 estimated that the United States furnished 80 per cent of the Allied petroleum requirements and other Allied leaders sent messages of thanks.

KAISER IN PAINTING

Canvas Shown in Paris Depicts Wilhelm And Hindenburg Led to Punishment

Paris, Feb. 6.—In a window of a shop on the Boulevard Malesherbes is a painting by Schwab.

In front of it there always lingers, by day and by night, or at least until late in the evening, a French crowd. There are nearly always half a dozen women in black and five or six children, some of them with shawls over their heads. There is generally a sprinkling of Frenchmen especially of officers, in their light blue uniforms. The name of the painting appears in great black letters beneath the canvas. It is "Justice."

Justice, in the form of a beautiful woman, appears at the end of a triangle of angels. All the angels are pointing their fingers at two soldiers in German helmets. The Kaiser is one of them and Hindenburg is the other. Both those tyrants are heavily manacled, and their eyes are turned toward the ground. Justice, stern-faced with her sword, is driving the two arch criminals of all time to their retribution. Beneath the platform on which the Kaiser and Hindenburg are standing is a smoking cannon.

The earth is covered as far as the eye can see in every direction with bodies. There seem to be tens of thousands of them, men and women and children, soldiers and civilians. The woman and children predominate in the picture. Their ghastly faces can be seen everywhere, amid the ruins of dwellings, shops and cathedrals.

In the very foreground of the picture, lying upon the other bodies, is the nude figure of a beautiful woman One of her breasts is mangled and bleeding.

The picture is painful, but it is powerful!

LUXEMBURG WILL VOTE

Bill Introduced in Chamber of Duchy To Have Referendum

Luxemburg, Feb. 6.—The Council of the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg has introduced in the Chamber of Deputies a bill providing for a referendum to decide whether the people of the Grand Duchy wish to change the form of its government to that of a republic.

A proposal to have the plebiscite determine also if Luxemburg wishes to be politically annexed to France or Belgium was stricken from the measure as premature.

Y. W. C. A. CAMPAIGN

Virginia's Quota is $16,580—Drive Will End February 17—Nineteen District Chairmen Will Direct Work in the State of Virginia.

Of the million dollars which the Young Women's Christian Association hopes to raise in its great nation-wide drive from Feb. 6 to 17 inclusive Virginia is asked to contribute only $16,580 and the entire South Atlantic Field, of which she is a part, but $66,000.

All of the money is to go for field and national support, as "headquarters" finds itself beset by demands from every part of the country, demands of so pressing a nature that they cannot, in good conscience, be overlooked. The war has created new situations and new conditions which clamor for adjustment, and the Y. W. C. A. today has tenfold the work to do that it had in 1917. Outside of the big cities of the Union are 5,000,000 town and country girls who need leadership training and encouragement in order that they may face the new tasks before them.

Well has the drive in the South been called the Blue Triangle Investment Campaign, for every dollar contributed to the association means an investment in our young womanhood. In times of peace the organization is a clearing house for the church, a home of friendliness and a supplementary educational institution for its beneficiaries. It makes no distinctions as to creed, race or color and aims to meet the needs of every class.

Some perhaps will ask why the funds coming from the United War Work Campaign do not suffice to meet the wants of the Y. W. C. A. The answer is that these funds, controlled by a Government Committee, can be used only for war work, while the normal or permanent work of the association must go on. For it to retrogress or stagnate at such a time as this would be calamitous.

The machinery for the campaign has been well organized in Virginia. Nineteen district chairmen will direct matters in various sections of the State and headuarters will be in Richmond, in the Virginia Railway and Power Company building. Mrs. E. O. McCabe is state chairman and Mrs. J. Taylor Robinson state director. These have immediately at hand several experts and a large force of stenographers. Every town, county and city is asked to help in procuring Virginia's quota.

"No beer, no work."

A committee has been appointed to make known this decision to the Essex Trades Council and to ask that body to call a general strike for the same reason and on the same slogan if beer is placed under the ban July 1.

WHAT IT COSTS IN FAIRFAX

Occasionally persons are arraigned before the Police Court of this city on the charge of exceeding the speed limit with automobiles. In some cases such defiers of the law get off with a five dollar fine, but the majority of such offenders pay ten dollars. Those compelled to produce the latter amount generally think they have been severely dealt with, but compared with the penalty prescribed in this city to that exacted in other places the delinquents will see that they receive more mercy here than elsewhere. A case came up in Fairfax county, near this city, yesterday when an automobilist was shown to have exceeded the speed limit in running an auto between Alexandria and Camp Humphreys. He was assessed thirty dollars. A fine of twenty-five dollars was exacted with five dollars costs. No costs are collected in the Alexandria Police Court, the fine only being collected.

A WORD FOR THE "COPS."

Billy Sunday in a discourse in Richmond Tuesday said the "cops" of that city are fit to police heaven. Continuing his words of appreciation he said he could not recommend any better ones.

Policemen are looked upn by many thoughtless people as suspicious characters on general principles, and but few words of commendation are uttered of a city's guardians. No matter how faithfully and conscientiously they act, their motives are questioned, and these minions of the law are seldom appreciated. We are glad the evangelist is ready to express his commendation of the policemen of the capital city. Such officers are too often criticised by unthinking people who seldom know whereof they speak.

During his discourse Tuesday the evangelist was severe upon preachers, and among other things he said:

"The trouble is not with the pews, but with the pulpit. Do you want a frank statement from me—one who speaks from twenty-five years' experience? All right. There is more religion in the average congregation today than there is in the average preacher."

We know nothing of preachers in other communities, but will say those with whom we are acquainted are all that could be expected of gentlemen of their calling. They make themselves examples of their flocks, so far as we can see.

USEFUL PUBLICATION

For many years "Blank's Purple Pills Almanac,' or some variant of that, had considerable vogue, particularly in rural districts, and in addition to furnishing moth-eaten humor and much prophetic misinformation about the weather, spread propaganda for increasing the sales of purple pills among the people. The United States Public Health Service has taken this old idea and turned it to good account in Public Health Bulletin No. 98, which is now put forth as a "Health Almanac for 1919."

As the Philadelphia Record says this little pamphlet, compiled by R. C. Williams, assistant surgeon, and prepared by direction of the Surgeon General, is one of the sanest and most helpful public documents yet issued by a Government which has often been wasteful of white paper, and we are glad to do our little bit to help along its circulation. "It is the patriotic duty of every loyal American to keep well," says the compiler, in his introductory remarks, and he then gets right down to the business of showing us how to do our duty. It is the neatest little bit of reconstruction helpfulness that we have seen in many a moon.

GERMANY'S LIABILITIES

If the Peace Conference will go back to 1871 it will be able to get a "pointer" from that eminent statesman, Prince Bismarck as to the indemnity to be exacted from Germany, says a contemporary, which calls attention to the fact that in assessing damages on France he adopted the time honored railroad maxim. It was to charge all that the traffic would bear. When he put 5,000,000,000 francs ($1,000,000,000) on France he thought it was more than France could pay in a long time. Therefore, he put a Germany army in Paris to remain there until the bill was settled. He expected in this way that Germany would possess the French capital almost indefinitely and that a big portion of the German Army would be supported for years at the expense of the French people. The indemnity was soon paid, however, and much to his disgust his army had to be withdrawn from France. Even then Germany was looking forward to another war upon France. For Bismarck said: "The next time we will bleed France white."

In this way Bismarck has instructed France both as to the measure of damages and the method of collection. The German people clamorously approved the war on France and her allies. They have escaped all the horrors and spoliation and barbarity of war, and the only way to make them repentant is to put such a bill for damages on them that they will feel it for years to come, and will so in some small measure suffer the penalty for their sins. The bill should be so large that Germany will be unable for two generations or more to build up another great military machine.

As to the manner of enforcing payment Bismarck's plan was effective. A big army in Berlin at the expense of Germany will probably be the method of collection which the Peace Conference will adopt.

GOOD NEWS FOR WIVES

Former Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary is said to be seeking a divorce, and the former Crown Prince of Germany is also reported to have instituted divorce proceedings.

The Baltimore Sun says probably nothing could give the ladies concerned more pleasure than this intelligence. It must have been hard for them to bear with such mates under the most favorable circumstances, and only fidelity and loyalty could have reconciled the wife of the Crown Prince to association with him. War could not be half such a hell as marriage to such a creature. As to Charles, he appears to be a royal weakling whom any honest woman would despise. Here's hoping both these women may be discharged from purgatory.

CHILDREN RUN WILD

Vladivostok, Feb. 6.—The pitiful plight of several thousand Russian children ranging in age from 6 to 15 years who were sent into the country to escape famine but left stranded by military operations of the bolsheviki, is described by American Red Cross workers returning from western Siberia. The American Red Cross has assembled 1,200 of the children at Kurgen, Tumen, Irbit and other centers, and is providing them with food, clothing and protection. Many of the abandoned children are running wild in the Urals, subsisting on roots and what they can beg and living in a state approaching savagery. These children, of both bolsheviki and bourgeois families, were sent to Petrograd and Moscow last spring in charge of teachers. They were prevented from returning home when the bolsheviki closed the front. They soon became disorganized, abandoned by the teachers and split into small groups seeking food and shelter all along the Siberian railway.

13 Dollars—13 Cents
When Swift & Company paid, say,—13 dollars per hundredweight for live beef cattle last year, their profit was only 13 cents! In other words, if we had paid $13.13, we would have made no profit.
Or, if we had received a quarter of a cent per pound less for dressed beef we would have made no profit.
It is doubtful whether any other business is run on so close a margin of profit.
This is bringing the producer and the consumer pretty close together—which should be the object of any industry turning raw material into a useful form.
This remarkable showing is due to enormous volume, perfected facilities (packing plants strategically located, branch houses, refrigerator cars, etc.), and an army of men and women chosen and trained to do their special work.
This, and many other points of interest, are found in the Swift & Company Year Book for 1919, just published which is brought out for the public as well as for the 25,000 Swift & Company shareholders.
The Year Book also represents the packer's side of the Federal Trade Commission investigation, upon which Congress is asked to base action against the industry.
Many who have never heard the packer's side are sending for the Year Book.
Would you like one? Merely mail your name and address to the Chicago office and the book will come to you.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Marshal Foch estimates that 400,000 American troops are required to keep the "watch on the Rhine" until peace is signed.

Thousands of persons are hungry in Linz ((100 miles west of Vienna). Food shops have been plundered and other depredations committed. The disturbances are continuing.

Huge crowds of emaciated men, women and children, greeted the arrival in Vienna of the first American food train. The American officers and soldiers in charge of the train were cheered to the echo.

Several British Socialist organizations, heavily financed by "unknown angels," are said to be behind a plot for effecting national industrial paralysis preliminary to reproducing in England the Soviet conditions reigning in Russia.

The United States may go dry—but for Washington—there will be an oasis, or several of them. Embassies and legations are technically "foreign soil" Which means they can import all the liquor desired. Full attendance is predicted at all diplomatic functions.

The impression is growing in Paris that the United States must assume the role of godfather to many of the small countries and communities, willingly or unwillingly, if the league of nations is to accomplish all that is intended. Not only have these peoples begun to look to America as a protector, but the big powers are showing a disposition to regard America as the one nation which can exercise a mandatory over certain territories without engendering international jealousies.

The menace of a general strike paralyzing all London appears to be passing. The government feels confident the crisis will be averted. The belief is that the conference today between a government delegation and a committee of strikers will result in an agreement forestalling the threatened walkout of the engineers, electricians, and bus drivers.

Conferences are proceeding between Foreign Minister Sonnino and Premier Venizelos regarding Greece's claims, according to a dispatch from Paris. Italy, the dispatch said, is willing to turn over the Aegean Islands to Greece, providing the Corfu canal is internationalized and that Italy receives compensation in Asia Minor.

Following refusal of mill owners to agree to an eight hour day without an increase in wage ratings, approximately 7,000 textile workers claimed they were locked out at Columbus, Ga., yesterday. Only two mills out of fourteen were operating there. The two mills in operation were said to be running on a limited scale with unorganized workers. A number of deputies have been sworn in for a possible emergency. No disturbances have been reported.

Unless concessions are granted 30,000 striking ship workers in the Seattle district, 95 per cent of Seattle's union, labor will cease work today in a general sympathetic strike. Labor leaders declare 40,000 union workers will join the idle ship workers. The shipyard strike which developed the present situation resulted, it is said, from refusal of workers to abide by th Macy award, which had been accepted by the American Federation of Labor.

Secretary of War Baker has confirmed reports that the armistice alone saved Germany from a crushing debacle. He says: "The armies of our adversary were beaten and broken, and if the armistice had not been signed on the day it was signed, large bodies of his troops would with in the next few days have been surrounded and captured, and his ultimate surrender perhaps would have taken the traditional form of the handing over of the sword rather than the signing of conditions of armistice."

Frank Dillard and Jeff Jenkins, alleged leaders of a mob which stormed the Sheffield, Ala., city jail, from which Will Byrd, negro, was taken and lynched on November 10 last, were acquitted of the charge by a jury yesterday. Dillard and Jenkins, together with sixteen other men were arrested on indictments soon after the lynching and have been confined in jail pending trial. Following acquittal of Dillard and Jenkins, the court ordered that the remaining cases be dismissed and the men released.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Dawson Bros.' Manufacturing Co., Incorporated of Lynchburg manufacturers of vinegar, preserves, pickles, &c., controlling concerns under the name in Memphis, Atlanta and Dallas, went into the hands of receivers yesterday.

The debt on the last capitol of the Confederacy which was at Danville has been lifted. Twenty trustees of the Confederate Memorial Association have contributed $400 to save the old colonial home from falling into private hands. This mansion now belongs to the city and is used as a civil war relic repository. It contains the table on which Jefferson Davis signed his last official proclamation.

Defying arrest and whirling a 3 1-2 foot cavalry sword, Philip Thornton, a negro, was shot and killed by one of three Danville policemen striving to take him into custody yesterday afternoon. The negro was suffering from religious dementia, and, with the sword in a scabbard buckled around his waist, he entered the cooperage of a tobacco factory and began preaching to the negroes. Seeing the policemen sent to arrest him, Thornton became furious and drew his sword and advanced toward them. W. B. Foster and T. E. Riley were driven into a corner, where they were dodging the whirling blade. The policemen fired simultaneously. The officers were exonerated by a coroner's jury.

HOLD UP RESTAURANT

Masked Bandits Rob Guests and Empty Cash Drawer in Brooklyn And Then Speed Away.

New York. Feb. 6.—Another robbery by masked men, who traveled in an automobile and escaped without leaving a trace of their identity, occurred in Brooklyn several mornings ago. Just before 1 o'clock four men drove up to a restaurant at 742 Wythe avenue, and while the driver remained in the car as a "lookout," the other three men, all masked, entered the place, and drawing revolvers, commanded two men and a woman who were eating to back up against the wall. One of the men rifled the pockets of the diners, taking $7.45 from Joseph Licberman. He then cautioned the three to remain there, threatening to shoot them if they made an outcry.

Behind the counter was the proprietress, Mrs. Fannie Steinberg. She was ordered to throw up her hands, and while she looked on the intruders took $90 from the cash register and a $50 Liberty bond.

Still covering the victims with their guns, the hold-up men backed out of the restaurant. As they leaped into the waiting motorcar and started away Mrs. Steinberg ran to the street and screamed. One of the highwaymen fired several shots at her but none took effect. She looked for a number on the car, but there was none.

Patrolman Martin, who was attracted by the shots, could obtain only a meagre description of themen.

THRILLING EXPERIENCE

Accident to Army Balloon While 7,200 Feet Above Terra Firma.

Salisbury, Md., Feb. 6.—While an army balloon which left Washington yesterday morning and crossed over the Chesapeake Bay was passing over this town at a height of over 7,200 feet the four army officers and pilot in the basket were startled by a sound which indicated fire from static electricity. The four officers were Lieut. Col. H. A. Dargue, Lieut. Col. Geo. B. Hunter, Capt. M. J. Phillips and Capt. L. B. Montfort. The pilot was Leo Stevens.

It was a fight for life, Pilot Stevens said in telling of the rapid descent. All the appliances were brought into play for bringing the huge gas bag to earth and Pilot Stevens landed his men safely on the ground in a 35-mile gale, just at the time the big bag exploded. No one was seriously hurt, although two of the men were prostrated for a time. The balloon and all its appurtenances were destroyed.

THE BRITISH EMBARGO

Indignation Over England's "Selfish" Action Rampant in Debate

Indignation over Great Britain's imposition of an embargo against American manufactured goods was unleashed in the Senate yesterday when the Weeks resolution, inquiring of the State Department what steps if any, have been taken to combat the embargo restrictions, was called up.

The resolution was not disposed of, but the debate brought to the surface the hitherto suppressed wrath of many Senators, who look upon Great Britain's action as being not only untimely but actually unfriendly.

Every word uttered by Senators who took the floor to discuss the resolution was in condemnation of Great Britain's course. None was raised in defense of the embargo. No suggestion of justification was raised. Most of the Senators who spoke took the position that placing of the embargo against the United States at such a time as this demanded retaliatory measures by the United States of a character equally stringent.

The debate was not partisan. The principal speech was made by Senator Reed, who although suffering from illness, held the floor for more than an hour, bitterly excoriating Great Britain.

Among the many striking and forceful passages in Senator Reed's speech none attracted so much attention as the following:

"Great Britain, that you went over yonder to save, is proceeding to gain every advantage she can. Where she admits your soldiers to save her, she will not admit your goods you would like to sell to her for honest money, giving honest value."

Senator Reed called upon the nation to "wake up" to stop "dreaming about eternal peace and happiness." Unless this is done, he said, the nation "will be obliged to extricate itself from a circle of intrigue surrounded by a circle of steel and of fire formed by our enemies while we sleep."

Senator Lewis took a brief, but vigorous part in the debate. He warned Great Britain that her statesmen should do nothing "to arouse the spirit of 1812." He declared it a most inappropriate time for England to take such action which is certain he said, to arouse hostility.

REDS DEFEATED

Government Troops Take Town Hall and Other Public Buildings.

Copenhagen, Feb. 6.—Spartacan forces reinforced by Radicals from Brunswick and Wilhelmshaven, led by Herr Heffmann, will attempt a coup in Berlin today, in the absence of the Ebert cabinet which has gone to Weimar. The plot is revealed by the Vossische Zeitung.

Berlin, Feb. 6.—Government troops have captured the Bremen town hall and most of the public buildings it was reported in dispatches received here yesterday. The Spartacans and said to be retiring.

Fighting started at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, when both sides opened artillery and machine fire. Shortly afterward the opposing forces called for re-enforcements. Additional Spartacan partisans started for Bremen and Bremerhaven, Wilhelmshaven and Hamburg. A brigade of government mine-throwers and sharpshooters left Berlin on special trains.

A force directed by a soldiers' council was reported yesterday to be marching from Gotha upon Weimar with the intention of overthrowing the government there. (Gotha is thirtly-five miles west of Weimar.)

Officials of Dusseldorf have made a formal protest against control of their city by the Spartacans, declaring the city faces financial ruin. The Spartacans, who already have wasted 300,000,000 marks ($75,000,000), according to the official plan to confiscate large fortunes and impose heavy taxes
